

To apply for this discount, email customerservice@wpspublish.com or fill out the form below and fax to 424.201.6950. If you have not received a response to the form below within two business days, please email customerservice@wpspublish.com.

WPS extends this discount to qualified scholarly programs. This discount applies to WPS test materials needed for use as course curricula within a graduate class or other formalized higher learning program where students receive training in the proper administration/use of the materials. The WPS Educational Discount is generally 50% off WPS proprietary materials, and 20% off unlimited-use computerized components and manipulative-intensive test kits such as those for the Autism Diagnostic Observation Schedule, Second Edition (ADOS®-2) and Sensory Integration and Praxis Tests (SIPT™) assessments.

Please note:

- Discounts are not issued retroactively.
- Discounts are only available on WPS-published items, identified by a "W-" product number (example: W-382). No scholarly discounts are available on CE materials, training components, or products that WPS distributes on behalf of other publishers.
- Please allow at least one week for your application to be processed.
- To avoid potential delays, please do not apply for a WPS Educational Discount concurrently with placing an order.
