To apply for this discount, email customerservice@wpspublish.com or fill out the form below and fax to 424.201.6950. If you have not received a response to the form below within two business days, please email customerservice@wpspublish.com.

WPS extends this discount to qualified trainers for acquisition of WPS-proprietary test materials required for instruction as part of a WPS independent training workshop (in-person clinical or research). In the case of Autism Diagnostic Interview–Revised (ADI®-R) and Autism Diagnostic Observation Schedule, Second Edition (ADOS®-2) trainers, the individual serving as instructor must be demonstrated as trained to the authors' standards. The WPS Independent Trainer Discount is generally 50% off consumable print test materials, and 10% off 10 or more manuals on a single order to a single destination. A 20% discount on one ADOS-2 Kit or ADOS-2 Upgrade Kit can be offered in situations where it is impractical for the trainer to bring his or her own kit to the training.

Please note:

- Discounts are not issued retroactively.
- Discounts are only available on WPS-published items, identified by a "W-" product number (example: W-382).
- No scholarly discounts are available on CE materials, training components, or products that WPS distributes on behalf of other publishers.
